MANAGEMENT

Village is based on an innovative and unique business model that combines the planning and management of complex accommodation systems with a specific focus on the multicultural, relational and educational aspects. This is made possible due to the deep knowledge of community psychology and organizational skills of its staff as well as an innovative model of services, intended to cater to every athlete's needs.

Village believes in sport, not only as a formative and educational vessel, but also as one of the most vital expressions of joy and effort for those who practice and teach it.

Village has a long-established expertise in hospitality management for the youth and the organization of cultural and educational activities dedicated to them.

Village has three business divisions: Sport, Expo and Youth.

OUR TECHNICAL STAFF

“The most important job in the Youth Sector is not to provide creativity but to prevent children from losing it.”
Pep Guardiola

Filippo Galli – Played Central Defence position in a stellar AC Milan Team, winning 17 titles of which 3 were Champions League and 2 Intercontinental Cups. Since 2009, he has held the role of Director of Youth Sector of the AC Milan, a fruit of his labour and intellectual curiosity; amalgamating a team, as heterogeneous as it is efficient, and constantly researching best international practices to create an innovative methodology on the international stage of modern football (CCA).

Filippo Galli continues to expand upon this methodology with a working team, consisting of Edgardo Zanolli, Domenico Gualtieri and Silvia Pasolini who, together, design and manage the technical stage alongside professionals possessing decades of experience in international football.
